Lomac

LOMAC GRANTURISMO 8.5 Located in Ibiza, Spain. It is a model that deserves the title of "Gran Turismo" because it is capable of traveling many miles at high speeds with absolute comfort. By raising the rpm and trimming out it turns into a sporty and fast rigid inflatable boat. It is a high quality product from each point of view, from the construction to finishing. The cabin is the most important part of the boat, because it determines more than anything else the type of model and the buyer's choice. Sleeping under a tent on the sunbathing pillows is quite romantic and charming; still a cosy double bed in a well-insulated, comfortable and functional cabin with a remarkable finish gives you an even more pleasant feeling. The natural light passes through the side scuttles, the plexiglass under the windshield and the open window on the bow deck. The bunk can also be used as a living room thanks to the detachable central part of the bed. Below the bed there is a closed storage area and the water tank, while space for a closet was created in the entrance hallway.
